PERRY NAMES ALL-AMERICAN GRID PLAYERS

Writer Gives Princeton and Michigan Two Places Each on Mythical Football Eleven.

LOCKE, OF IOWA, CHOSEN

This Selection Is Not Unbeatable but Represents the Best in the Different Positions.

By LAWRENCE PERRY

By Consolidated Press Assn. (Copyright 1922). Even in theory no one could pretend to say that a team made up of outstanding players picked from various teams throughout the country could, or should, defeat any eleven that might be pitted against it. This because so many elements, apart from sheer personnel, enter into the development of a gridiron team; coaching for instance, and physical condition and general psychology.

So the All-American may be regarded as a galaxy of outstanding individuals which is in no wise to be considered as an unbeatable combination but as a group of specialists in the different positions.

tions whose play has impressed the critic to the highest degree.

The All-American team and substitutes herewith presented have been selected by the writer as a result of personal observation in the Northwest, the Middle West, the South and the East. In some cases where doubt has existed he has sought the advice not only of coaches but of players. In consequence he feels that these two teams involve bestowal of honors upon as fair and discriminating a basis as is possible.

There will be fans who will be inclined to offer candidates for certain positions other than those that appear here. But even so, no one can question the great ability of the array of gridiron performers herein set forth.

It will be noted that two Pacific players have been awarded positions on the substitute team. Of these two men the writer had the most glowing reports and undoubtedly their play throughout the season has been of the highest character. The writer, however, has not been able to visit the Far West in the course of the season and is not ready to accept hearsay in the case of any players whatever. The great criticism of All-American eleven has hinged upon this very defect.

Here are the teams:

ALL-AMERICA ENDS

Goebel, Michigan

Gray, Princeton

TACKLES

Gulian, Brown

Treat, Princeton

GUARDS

Pondelik, Chicago

Davis, Georgia Tech

CENTER

Culver, Syracuse

BACKS

Kipke, Michigan

Castner, Notre Dame

Locke, Iowa

Kaw, Cornell

ALL-AMERICA SUBSTITUTES

ENDS

Kirk, Michigan

Muller, University Calif.

TACKLES

Penfield, Northwestern

Muirhead, Michigan

GUARDS

Minnick, Iowa

Hubbard, Harvard

CENTER

Heldt, Iowa

BACKS

John Thomas, Chicago

Owen, Harvard

Martineau, Minnesota

Morrison, University of Calif.

Rating the teams is not a difficult task. Eleven throughout the country that were neither tied nor defeated were Princeton, Cornell, Iowa and California.

The Army, Michigan, West Virginia and Vanderbilt were not defeated but were tied. Princeton must be rated above Cornell because of the superior character of the opposition she faced. So this is the rating:

East Princeton

Middlewest Iowa

Far West California

South Georgia Tech and Vanderbilt tied.

Princeton in many respects was unique, a team that began the year with young and green men in most of the positions and yet developed logically throughout the season, defeating teams that no one thought she could beat. She contributed nothing new or startling to offense, but on defense showed an intuition and a knowledge of all the possibilities in the way of checking plays of whatever sort that stamped her as truly great.

TIGERS WILL PLAY TEXAS

First Basketball Game of the Season Will Be Played Here January 1.

Missouri will open the basketball season this year with a game with the University of Texas on the night of January 1, according to Z. C. Cleverger, director of athletics of the University of Missouri, who this morning closed the deal with the southern team. The Texas team is making a northern tour during holidays and will play several games during the trip.

The Texas team is one of the strongest teams in the Southwest Conference. Mr. Cleverger said, and it will be in charge of Milton Romney, former quarterback on the Chicago football team that defeated Princeton a few years ago.

The Missouri team will not practice in Kansas City this year as in former years during the holidays.

GRID STARS TO PLAY GAME

Professional Football Game in St. Louis Saturday.

The first practice of Ollie Kraehe's all-star team which will play a professional football game with "Bo" McMillan's famous team at High School Field in St. Louis next Saturday afternoon was held day before yesterday on the Principia Academy campus in St. Louis.

Noted players from the Pikers, Billikens and Webster High School and Elmer ("Eddie") Edwards who played with the Tigers in 1917, '18 and '19, have reported for practice with the team.

Allan Lincoln has assured Kraehe that he will appear Saturday afternoon in uniform. "Brick" Travis, another well-known Missouri star, who is now in business in St. Charles, has been called upon to play one of the tackle positions and will probably be in the line-up next Saturday.

This is the first professional game that has been booked in St. Louis in a number of years.

JUDGE LIKES FOOTBALL

A Clean Sport, Asserts Former Chicago Star.

"Football is a wonderful training for a man," said Judge Steffen, formerly a star quarterback on the University of Chicago team, in an address made recently.

When his three sons enter college, if they mind their father, will "try for the team."

"Perhaps the main reason why football has such a strong hold on the American public is because it is a clean game and is pure sport, with practically no bad features," he said.

WABASH TO RUN SPECIAL

Train Will Return After Tragos-Reed Wrestling Match.

A special train on the Wabash Railroad will leave Columbia for Centralia at 7 o'clock Tuesday night and return immediately after the match between George Tragos and Jake Reed.

This is a match to the finish, two falls out of three, with no time limit. As this match is for supremacy in this section, each participant feels as though spirit in the home town of the other would be unfair to the "foreigner." This eliminates the towns of Columbia and Fulton. Hence, Centralia was agreed upon.

Ames Loses at Basketball. Iowa State College at Ames lost its first basketball game Friday night when it was defeated by Cornell College, 31 to 23.

WOULD ALTER BALL RULES

St. Louis Suggests Radical Changes in Baseball.

By HENRY L. FARELL (United Press Sports Editor.)

New York, Dec. 18.—Suggestions for two radical changes in the baseball rules came recently from St. Louis. It was suggested that a free ticket to the bases be issued on three balls instead of four balls, as at present, and that three fouls on the third strike should constitute an out.

While there is nothing particularly wrong with the suggestion, any adoption of the changes probably would be opposed on the theory that they are not needed.

Reducing the number of balls to three would only work a handicap on a pitcher and pitching is under enough handicap now with the lively ball, the freak rules, etc.

Making it an out for three fouls on the last strike would not be of much importance.

There is one thing of value in the suggestion. It would speed up the game and speed is surely needed. Too many games last year ran two hours, two hours and a half and three hours. Some improvements could be made if the umpires would keep after the players, but the officials seem just as lazy themselves.

CRAIG RUBY'S CAGERS WIN

Pikers Are Defeated 29-14 at Urbana.

The first basketball game that Coach Craig Ruby's University of Illinois team played, ended in a 29 to 14 victory for Ruby's men Saturday when they played Washington University at Urbana.

Ruby was coach of the Tiger basketball team last year, and led his men through two victories over the Washington Pikers.

Ruby is a graduate of the University.

No Time Out For Chick Hartley. Captain Chick Hartley of the Nebraska football team has played football for eight years, four in high school and four in college, and has never once taken time out for injuries. His last game was played Thanksgiving day against Notre Dame. He played that game from the first down to the end with a broken nose.

Grid Profits Large at Pennsylvania. Football at the University of Pennsylvania made a profit of $98,734 this year. The only other sport that paid at that school was basketball, which cleared $6,973. The nineteen sports of the University earned $309,781, with $247,757 for expenditures.

Hubbard Elected Captain. By Wireless Telegram. CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 18.—Charles J. Hubbard, Milton, Mass., was elected captain of the 1923 Harvard football team. He has played guard on the varsity team for two years and is a member of the crew.

Wade Will Coach Alabama. Wallace Wade has accepted the position of head football coach at the University of Alabama. He was formerly assistant grid coach at Vanderbilt University.

Boeller Heads Drake Eleven. William "Colonel" Boeller of Greeley, Colo., has been elected captain in the 1923 Drake University football team.

EXTRA POINT RULE MAY GO

Football Season Shows Failure to Kick Goal Lost Many Games.

By WALTER CAMP (By Consolidated Press Assn. Copyright 1922).

New York, Dec. 18.—Coaches, athletic authorities and experts who have the development and improvement of the great gridiron sport at heart are now busily casting up the results of the season of 1922 as they may bear on the progress of football for the future. There is today a fairly general consensus of opinion that however the rules may be changed with the object of making the scoring of the extra point after touchdown a team play, so far, at least, the play reverts just as it did in the old days to two men—the man who holds the ball and the man who kicks it.

In the last season the failure to secure this added point had a decided bearing on the results of many games. Very few attempts for try at point were blocked.

Perhaps the most interesting basis for intensive study of the trend of the game was presented by the analysis of the Boston College-Holy Cross contest, made by Fred Burleigh, an official. His figures show that in the entire game the ball actually was in play less than twelve minutes although the game lasted over two hours including the intermissions.

Of this time, Burleigh estimated that 48 minutes and 37 seconds were consumed in giving signals for the 132 plays which were run off, 35 of which took place in each of the first and fourth quarters and 31 each in the second and third periods. Many students of the game now are figuring on some method of reducing these delays.
